

I oppose any relaxation of restrictions on broadcast ownership. The media marketplace is already too monolithic. The FCC should be rewriting rules to encourage more owners and voices rather than making it easier for existing conglomerates to expand.